Driven to explore.
Fuelled by creativity.

Paul Zizka is an award-winning mountain landscape and adventure photographer based in Banff, Canada. A prolific adventurer, Paul’s journey to capture the “under- documented” has taken him to all seven continents, as well as to each of Canada’s provinces and territories. He is frequently published in some of North America’s top magazines and has four coffee-table photography books: Spirits in the Sky: Northern Lights Photography, Aloft: Canadian Rockies Aerial Photography, Summits & Starlights: The Canadian Rockies and The Canadian Rockies: Rediscovered (winner, Banff Mountain Book Competition “Mountain Image” category). A passionate teacher, he hosts workshops all over the world, as well as an online community for photographers, through his company, OFFBEAT. Paul enjoys life in the mountains with his wife Meghan and their two daughters.

Fellow of the Royal Canadian Geographical Society.

“I believe there is in all human beings a deep connection with the natural environment. In these times, however, that link is often obscured by the capitalistic, hectic, materialistic and anthropocentric nature of our societies. My hope is that through my photography people will rediscover the precious connection they can have with the wonders of our planet.”
